WAIVER FOR FOOD VENDORS

_____ I understand that the Northwestern Health Unit may prohibit vendors from attending the market if they see that they are not following proper food safety protocols and practices. All contact regarding market eligibility will be between the vendor and the local public health inspector.

_____ I agree to hold the Northwest Farmers Market, the Sioux Lookout Chamber of Commerce, the Sioux Lookout Travel Information Centre and each organizations staff members unresponsive for your inability to attend the market should the Northwestern Health Unit's Public Health Inspectors find that you are not following all of the protocols required or not meeting the proper standards. No refund will be issued should the Northwestern Health Unit deem your food items unfit to sell at the market and prohibit you from attending.

_____ I understand that I am expected to follow all regulations and guidelines set out by the Northwestern Health Unit and the Ontario Food Premises Regulation under the Ontario Health Protection and Promotion Act as well as the Ontario Food Safety and Quality Act. It is the Vendor's responsibility to ensure they are meeting these standards and are in good standing. The Northwest Farmers Market and Sioux Lookout Chamber of Commerce will not be responsible for the education of the vendors.

I have read and understood the items above and will adhere to them
